BLUE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION NAMED ONE OF THE BEST WORKPLACES FOR WOMEN

CHEYENNE, WY (October 2025) — Blue Federal Credit Union is proud to announce that it has been recognized as one of the Best Workplaces for Women by Best Companies Group, a distinction that celebrates organizations fostering inclusive, supportive, and empowering environments for women to thrive.

“At Blue, we believe that our people are the heart of our success,” said Stephanie Propps, President and Chief Executive Officer at Blue Federal Credit Union. “We’ve built a culture where women are encouraged to lead boldly, innovate fearlessly, and bring their authentic selves to work every day. This recognition is a reflection of the women who inspire us daily—those who lift others up, drive meaningful change, and help us build communities rooted in possibility.”

Blue’s commitment to creating a workplace where everyone can succeed stems from its foundational belief: members and employees alike deserve a community built around authentic connections. Through leadership programs, mentorship opportunities, flexible benefits, and a culture of belonging, Blue continues to champion equity and growth across every level of the organization.

“Being recognized among the Best Workplaces for Women isn’t just an achievement—it’s a reminder of who we are,” shared Mel Hanes, Chief People Officer at Blue Federal Credit Union. “We’re your lifelong champion, invested in every dream and every person who makes our organization extraordinary.”

This honor adds to Blue’s growing list of accolades celebrating its positive workplace culture, dedication to member and employee well-being, and unwavering mission to help people realize their possibilities.
